UNIQUE WINE PRODUCERS

The Growers List

A homage to some of the world's best producers, their stories, and most importantly, their wines.

Our grower's list is an opportunity for us to bring you some of the rarest and most unique bottles from around the globe.

Greywacke, New Zealand

Greywacke was created in 2009 by Kevin Judd, the mastermind behind Cloudy Bay. When Cloudy Bay was purchased, Kevin set up Cloudy Bay to prioritise the quality-led approach that made him one of the earliest pioneers of Marlborough winemaking. His ground-breaking wines helped put this small New Zealand region on the world wine map and now his Archive releases are the most sought after in the world.

2015 Marlborough Wild Sauvignon, Greywacke Archive Release, New Zealand - White	75
2022 Marlborough Pinot Noir, Greywacke, New Zealand - Red	90

'Isole e Olena' Italy

Isole e Olena is in the western part of Chianti Classico, just north of the village of Castellina. Its 45 hectares of vineyard are planted between 350 – 450 metres above sea level, primarily on galestro soil. Because the western flank of Chianti is open to breezes from the sea, this is a much cooler part of the zone, resulting in unique wines that are lighter but more scented and elegant than the rest of the region.

2022 `Collezione Privata` Chardonnay, Isole e Olena, Tuscany, Italy - White	190
2020 `Cepparello`, Isole e Olena, Tuscany, Italy - Red	290

Littorai, USA

In 1992, Ted and Heidi Lemon travelled the length of the west coast of the United States looking for the best sites of California, settling on the coast of Sonoma and Mendocino Counties. At the time, this region was not yet known for premium viticulture, but Ted was convinced that the soils, climate and cooling fog would be ideal for producing elegant, site-specific expressions of Pinot Noir and Chardonnay. Nowadays Littorai wines set the premium benchmark for the region and the wines are truly sensational.

2021 `B.A. Thieriot Vineyard` Sonoma Coast Chardonnay, Littorai, California, USA - White	270
2021 `The Pivot Vineyard` Sonoma Coast Pinot Noir, Littorai, California, USA - Red	300
