“No. Fifty Cheyne is SOMETHING TRULY SPECIAL”

– Tatler

Appointed in April 2021 as a Licensed Wedding Venue, No. Fifty Cheyne is both a flagship for Old Chelsea and a neighbourhood gem – now available for the first time for civil ceremonies. No. Fifty Cheyne offers a selection of rooms and spaces, each with their own character and designed to be the perfect setting for your wedding celebration.

No. Fifty Cheyne can accommodate the most intimate of civil ceremonies as well as larger wedding receptions of up to 120 guests.

No. Fifty Cheyne takes pride in assisting guests with planning the wedding of their dreams. We invite you to collaborate with our Executive Chef, Iain Smith, to craft a bespoke menu. Every detail, from personalised floral arrangements to live music and entertainment, can be tailored to your preferences.

Welcome to THE VINEYARD...

The Vineyard is a beautiful space draped in seasonal flower installations accommodating up to 32 guests. The far side nested under a gorgeous flowery arch can be reserved independently, as a semi private space for a maximum of 16 guests.

The Vineyard lends itself perfectly to intimate seated receptions, all the while still giving your special occasion an elegant and cosy touch.

The FIRST FLOOR

T Introducing the stunningly redesigned Drawing Room, an exquisite space on our First Floor that now shines brighter than ever.

Our beautiful MAIN DINING ROOM & BAR and exclusive hires

Last but not least, the entirety of No. Fifty Cheyne can be reserved exclusively for your event. With a venue exclusive hire, you have access to both The Vineyard, the First Floor but also to our Main Dining Room & Bar.

Exclusive venue hires provide a myriad of opportunities to add that special touch to your event, including live music, a DJ, and dancing. Our venue accommodates up to 80 seated guests on the ground floor and can hold as many as 120 guests for standing events.

“ Every single person kept coming up to us on the night and the day(s) after just saying how seamless and perfect the venue was and every single person that worked there. From the skill in which they worked to the friendly nature they showed...You were the conductor leading the orchestra both in the weeks leading up and then on the day. ”

“ I couldn't imagine a better place for us to have celebrated the beginning of our married life together ”

OUR EVENT MENUS

Our bespoke wedding menus with EXECUTIVE HEAD CHEF IAIN SMITH

Iain has worked in some of London's most prestigious restaurants and hotels and now five years at the helm of No. Fifty Cheyne. To pick my favourite thing about the job, I think it has to be hosting weddings. I remember the first wedding we did; I was so nervous as it is such a special day for the couple, family, and their friends. The build-up of all the preparation from the room layout, flowers, bespoke menu tastings for food and drink, and, of course, the live music to then delivering on the day gives us a great feeling of emotion, joy, and welcome pressure. Once we have delivered the food and service, it gives me and the team great satisfaction and pride when we see all our guests smiling together. I think we are different from others in the field due to the bespoke aspect—literally no wedding is the same. We help bring to life what you're imagining, create memories along the way, from the food and wine tasting in the restaurant to all the planning with our team. It's a really special journey. That feeling of seeing the bride and groom smiling is a real career highlight. It's such a privilege and long may it continue.

“ My wedding day would have been incomplete without Iain's amazing talent. The food was exceptional. We took a seat with Chef, told him our favourite foods and designed our perfect menu together. It made our day even more special
